

IRI 20 IN 21

Victor Howell

Vice President, Research Consulting & Development Unit
NATIXIS INVESTMENT MANAGERS

Victor Howell is a Vice President in the Research Consulting and Development Unit at Natixis Investment

Managers. In this role, he is responsible for developing and managing relationships with gatekeepers such as manager selection teams and product analyst at various financial intermediaries. He works to disseminate the firm's research capital, portfolio analytics capabilities, manager expertise and industry insights. Additionally, he is a member of the Global Diversity Steering Committee and on the Leadership team of the Multicultural and Diversity Engagement group (MADE) at Natixis.

In previous roles at Natixis, Mr. Howell worked in a sales capacity as a wirehouse Internal Wholesaler covering the southwest, and as a Hybrid Wholesaler covering private banks nationally. Prior to joining Natixis, he worked at Fidelity Investments with the Financial Advisor Solutions sales team and at Ameriprise Financial. He received a Bachelor of Science in finance with a minor in computer information systems from Bentley University. He is a CAIA charter holder and is FINRA Series 7, 31, and 63 license.